Dr. John Taylor and the Higher Learning Commission,

John A. Logan College is submitting this monitoring report in fulfillment of the recommendations of the 2007 Higher Learning Commission Visitation Team Assurance Report. This report will show that the College has demonstrated a strong commitment to improving the working and learning environment through a reflective process that includes discussion and instruction in the role of governance and ethical decision-making. As a result of the team's recommendations, these review and communication processes have provided a foundation for renewed participation and transparency in the development of College policies, procedures, and practices. All documents may be viewed on the College website (<http://www.jalc.edu/accreditation/>).

The College is dedicated to the continuance of these processes to ensure the integrity of all college governance policies and practices. We look forward to your review and consideration of our efforts to meet both the letter of the recommendations and the spirit of collaborative evaluation.

Sincerely,

Tim Daugherty, Ph.D.
Vice-President for Administration
