

Thank you for registering for classes at John A. Logan College. As a college student we appreciate that you recognize your obligation to pay for your courses. When you register for classes, you will have 3 options to pay for your courses:

- Pay in full by the designated due date on your bill

- Sign up for the FACTS Payment Plan using the designated scheduled options

or

- Make sure your Financial Aid file is complete in our Financial Aid Office so that funds can be awarded against your account. If your file is complete you MUST ALSO SIGN UP FOR THE PENDING AID PLAN. The PENDING AID PLAN is a process where funds are withdrawn from a source you provide if your total financial aid doesn't come through. We appreciate your acknowledgement to meet this commitment. Handouts on how to sign up for the PENDING AID PLAN can be picked up with your academic advisor, in Admissions, in Financial Aid, or in the Business Office. If you are receiving financial aid and do NOT sign up for PENDING AID PLAN you WILL BE DROPPED FROM YOUR CLASSES. *Please note that just by filling out the FAFSA does not mean that you are eligible and your file is complete.

To sign up:

To sign up for the Pending Aid plan, enter your Weblink account>Payments>select a semester>click the FACTS button>click the DEFFERRED check box and complete the registration.

Do you want to select a monthly payment plan or a deferred payment plan?
