

Orientation (ORI)

ORI 100 Seminars for Success

.5-4 Hours

Prerequisites: None
.5-4 hours weekly (.5-4)

Seminars, conferences, special project(s), or professional meetings maximizing one's potential in college, the workplace, or in lifelong learning.

ORI 101 Student Success Seminar

3 Hours

Prerequisites: None
3 hours weekly (3-0)

This course is designed to provide the Deaf/Hard of Hearing student with the necessary prerequisite skills for successful college completion through practice and discussion of study skills, independent living skills, interpersonal relationships, academic goals and learning styles, career exploration, the use of interpreters in academic and community settings, and self-discipline. This course is intended to enhance the transition from high school to college and from school to work.

ORI 102 Student Success Seminar II

3 Hours

Prerequisites: ORI 101
3 hours weekly (3-0)

A continuation of Student Success Seminar I. Topics include advanced study skills, support services in academic settings, time management for long-term projects, work ethics in academic and employment settings, key factors affecting personal and professional success, drug and alcohol abuse issues, and the use of library resources. This class is designed for deaf and hard of hearing students.

ORI 103 Orientation to Financial Services

.5 Hours

Prerequisites: None
.5 hours weekly (.5-0)

This is a general overview for all first-time students who are attempting to receive financial services from John A. Logan College. The course will cover the various types of financial aid offered at the College, Pell Grants, MAP Grants, loans, and other forms of aid. The course will also cover federal regulations and policies covered by the Department of Education for the proper disbursement and continuation of financial services. The students will be informed about John A. Logan College policies as they relate to completion rates, GPA and other factors that allow students to continue their financial aid eligibility. This will be an on-line course. The course has tests built in after each section to determine if the students grasp the information and understand certain policies and procedures.

ORI 110 Seminars for Success

4 Hours

Prerequisites: None
4 hours weekly (4-0)

Seminars maximizing one's potential in college, the workplace or in lifelong learning will be presented. These seminars will enhance and improve the abilities of the participants.

ORI 200 Job Skills Improvement

4 Hours

Prerequisites:
4 hours weekly (4-0)

This course is designed to familiarize students with the internet as an instructional tool. Broad internet topics will be covered as well as on-line courses from both a student and instructional perspective.