

Volunteerism (VOL)

VOL 101 Volunteerism

1-3 Hours

Prerequisites: Agencies receiving volunteer services reserve the right to set requirements. The requirements will be met through a course, seminar, orientation, or criminal background/drug check.

This course will meet legislative guidelines and will give the student the opportunity to provide service to his/her community. The student will be assigned to an agency, community action group, or educational facility based upon his/her skills, knowledge, and general interests. Some opportunities may involve tutoring, animal shelters, elderly care, neighborhood improvement, hospitals, etc.
