

Wonderful Muddles

1. Fried or baked, Mrs. Jones makes a great chicken dinner.
2. At the age of ten, my grandfather gave me a bicycle.
3. Crawling all over the garbage, I saw a million flies.
4. We bought a duck from a neighbor with green and black feathers.
5. To be well stewed, you should let the prunes simmer for twenty minutes.
6. They installed a pool for the customer shaped like a heart.
7. She put the scarf around her neck that she bought yesterday.
8. We bought a car from a neighbor with a damaged rear end.
9. The bride wore a long white dress which fell to the floor.
10. The women included their husbands and children in their potlucks.
11. The summary of information contains totals of the numbers of students broken down by sex, marital status and age.
12. Even more astonishing was our saving the lives of little babies who formerly died from sheer ignorance.
13. For those of you who have small children and don't know it we have a nursery downstairs.
14. When a small boy, a girl is of little interest.