Thanks for your interest in John A. Logan College! I’ve included some information for you in the package. The main items we need are:

--TOEFL scores

--Confirmation of Financial Resources

–International Student Statement

--Copy of the passport

--Any high school and/or college transcripts

International students usually pay about $3000 a semester ($6000 a year) to attend our school. The housing is about $1900 a semester ($3800 a year). The total tuition/housing for a year is around $9800 - $10000. There is no financial aid available for international students.

Any questions may be referred to the Office of Admissions
John A. Logan College requires a confirmation of financial resources from each applicant who is not a United States citizen or holding permanent resident (immigrant) status at the time of application for admission. This statement must be on file in the Admissions Office before the application will be evaluated.

Because of currency exchange difficulties, a deposit of one full year’s expenses may be required of some applicants. These applicants will be notified at the time of acceptance.
