Before satellite, cable, CDs, and even cassette tapes, there was the radio. With its amber glowing dial and hardwood finish, it was an audio world that gave life to all that our imaginations could envision. Come hear The John A. Logan College Choral and Chamber Ensembles present an evening full of the nostalgic sounds of the season. Hosted by southern Illinois' own Ryan Patrick and featuring Allison and Jeremy Weaver, this evening is sure to be unforgettable.
The ladies of Constant Care Assisted Living have a unique sense of community. As an underage runaway flees hand in hand with a thespian, the elders want answers - as they so often do - which the Sheriff aims to provide. More than meets the eye seems to be afoot here, as the chase follows a map hidden in a cookbook to a houseboat moored at Crab Orchard Lake captained by an old salt, who manages to raise a squawk or two amongst his crew, as this mystery chases its tail to the end -- coughing up laughs along the way. Come join the farce while the wheel’s in spin.

Based on the 20th Century Fox Picture. Originally produced on Broadway by Robert Greenblatt, April 2009 This hilarious story of friendship and revenge in the Rolodex era is outrageous, thought-provoking, and even a little romantic. Pushed to the boiling point, three female co-workers concoct a plan to get even with the sexist, egotistical, lying, hypocritical bigot they call their boss. In a hilarious turn of events, they live out their wildest fantasy - giving their boss the boot! While he remains “otherwise engaged,” the women give their workplace a dream makeover, taking control of the company that had always kept them down. Hey, a girl can scheme, can’t she?
