

Social Work (SOCW)

SOCW 275 Introduction to Social Work

3 Hours

Prerequisites: None

3 hours weekly (3-0)

Introduction to Social Work examines the relationships among social, cultural, political, and economic factors in the history and practice of social welfare. The range of roles and applications of modern social work practice will be examined with particular emphasis on community based delivery systems.

SOCW 280 Rural and Minority Populations

3 Hours

Prerequisites: SOCW 275

3 hours weekly (3-0)

Rural and Minority Populations examines the relationship of cultural diversity to practice, policy, social and economic injustices among rural people/communities, racial/ethnic and minority groups. An emphasis on the needs, experiences and attitudes of minority populations pertaining to delivery of social services will be explored.

