

Spring 2018 Diversity and Inclusion Events

January

ADVANCE! Faculty and Staff Mentoring Program

Visit our office (C207-D) to apply or learn about this program

In Celebration of Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday

Date: January 31st, 2018 11:00 – 12:00 noon Batteau

Black on Black Crimes

Presenter: Mr. Stan Diggs, JALC Instructor of Criminal Justice

February

Black History Month Commemoration

Multicultural Perspectives Series - Theme: Gallery of Stories

Date: February 5th at 2:00 – 3:00 PM – McCollum room

The Power of the Black Vote

Presenter: Ms. Patricia Mayberry from Carbondale, IL

Keynote: February 21st, 2018 at 10:00 – 11:00 AM – Batteau and Ivey

Building Coalitions Across Race: The Black Panther Party. (Also in celebration of ADVANCE! Mentoring Program)

Presenter: Dr. Jacobi Williams, Associate Professor of History, Indiana University

A Conversation with the Keynote Speaker at 12:15 PM, McCollum room

Date: February 27th, 2018 at 9:30 – 10:45 AM – Batteau room

Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King, and the Montgomery Bus Boycott: A Fresh Look at the Story You Thought You Knew

Presenter: Dr. David Cochran, Professor of History at JALC

March

Women's History Month - Tuesday, March 27th, 2018, 11:00 AM & 12:00 noon, Batteau room

Theme: Nevertheless She Persisted: Honoring Women Who Fight All Forms of Discrimination Against Women

April

Wednesday, April 18th, 2018 at 10:00 AM -2:00 PM - World Music and Food Day

May

May 8th, 2018 at 6:00 – 7:30 PM – National Society of Leadership and Success Induction