

Transfer-Out Rates

The overall transfer out rate is the percentage of full-time, first-time students who transferred to another institution. This transfer rate is also known as the "Student Right-to-Know" rate.

*Please note that not all students at the institution are tracked for these rates. Students who have already attended another postsecondary institution, or who began their studies on a part-time basis are not tracked for this rate. At John A. Logan College, 12 percent of entering students were counted as "full-time, first-time" in 2016.
