

NEED HELP PAYING FOR COLLEGE?

The Perkins Grant May Be Your Answer

Eligibility

You may be able to receive assistance through the Perkins Grant if you are enrolled in a CTE (Career and Technical Education) program (as listed on the back) and are:

- An individual with a disability
- An individual from an economically disadvantaged background
- An individual preparing for a nontraditional field for your gender (i.e. women in welding, men in nursing)
- Single parent or single pregnant woman
- Out-of-Workforce individual
- English language learner
- Homeless individual
- An individual who has aged in or has aged out of foster care
- An individual with a parent who is in the armed forces or on active duty

Apply

To receive assistance from Perkins, you must first complete a Perkins application, meet with the Perkins Support Coordinator, and provide any additional information including: documentation verifying eligibility (Financial Aid award letter, PELL grant information), current class schedule, and current booklist or supply list.

Benefits

Perkins Student Support can assist with:
