

Mark Rogers | Curriculum Vitae

211 Walker Street, Energy, IL 618-559-2630 markrogers@jalc.edu

Teaching Experience

Associate Professor of Computer Information Systems John A. Logan College, Carterville, IL Develop Curriculum and courses for CIS, teach courses in Network Essentials, Computer Security, Network Security, Into to Cybercrimes, Cisco I, Cisco II, Operating Systems, Cloud, VPN's and Firewalls	8/2006 – Present
Adjunct Faculty Taught Spreadsheets, Database, Wireless Networks and Operating Systems	8/2004 -5/2006

Professional Certifications

CCNA – Cisco-Certifications	12/2020 – 12/2023
Certified Ethical Hacker Certificate EC Council	5/2019 – 5/2022
CompTIA Security + Certified Professional — CompTIA	3/2008 – Present
CompTIA Network + Certified Professional — CompTIA	2/2006 – Present
CompTIA A+ Certified Professional — CompTIA	1/2006 – Present

Education

Master of Information Technology – Internet Security American Intercontinental University, Chicago, IL Took 6-credit hour classes in Special Topics in Network Security, Cryptography Concepts, Introduction to Information Security, Information Systems, Enterprise Network Design, Strategic Information Management, Object Oriented Application Development, Database Design and Communication	8/2005 – 5/2007
---	-----------------

Bachelor of Science – Workforce Education 8/2002 – 5/2004
Southern Illinois University – Carbondale, IL

Associate of Applied Science – Computer Information Systems 8/2000 – 5/2002
John A. Logan College, Carterville, IL

Publications, Papers and Presentations

Cyber Security at Work 10/21/2015
Herrin Rotary Club Herrin, IL - Presented to area business about the dangers of cyber-attacks on their business

Cyber Security at Work 10/19/22015
John A. Logan College – Carterville, IL
Presented to both faculty and staff the dangers of cyber-attacks to their departments

Cyber-Bullying: How to spot it and what to do if your child is a victim 10/17/2015
John A. Logan College – Carterville, IL
Presented to parents the dangers of cyber-bullying: what to look for and how to record and report cyber-bullying

Identity Theft 12/2/2014
KFVS-TV12 – Carterville, IL
I did a segment on the dangers of identity theft
for the upcoming Christmas shopping season

I have an iPad, Now What? 6/6/2014
John A. Logan College – Carterville, IL
The College purchased iPads for each department and I did a training class for new iPad users

Did I really delete that? How long do items stay on the Internet? 2/21/2014 IBEA – Bloomington, IL Did a presentation of how easy it is to recover files that were deleted on flash drives and hard drives.

Awards

Center for Excellence Award 9/2009
John A. Logan College

Related Experiences

Network IT Director

8/2003 – 8/2006

Three Angels Broadcasting Network - Thompsonville, IL
Network Director of TV station, 400 workstations, 24 hour
Master Control, Cisco Switches and Routers

Computer Consultant

6/2002- Present

Ran my own consulting company with over 50 clients.
Did network design, security, and penetration testing

United States Marine Corp

1/1980 – 5/1985

Set-up and maintained both P2P and server based networks on bases and in the field. Analyze network topology and track network performance and data use. Conduct network Penetration Test from the inside of the network. Conducted research for network defense