

ACCREDITATION COMMISSION FOR EDUCATION IN NURSING AWARDED FOR ASSOCIATE DEGREE NURSING PROGRAM

The Associate Degree Nursing program at John A. Logan College at the Carterville campus located in Carterville, Illinois, is accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN).

3390 Peachtree Road NE, Suite 1400 Atlanta, GA 30326
(404) 975-5000

The most recent accreditation decision made by the ACEN Board of Commissioners for the Associate Degree Nursing program is initial accreditation.

View the public information disclosed by the ACEN regarding this program on the ACEN website.

Student Learning Outcomes for the Associate Degree Program are:

1. Integrate evidence-based practice through the implementation of the nursing process.
2. Facilitate quality and safety of an individual's care including information technology.
3. Apply nursing knowledge to impact quality improvement.
4. Demonstrate leadership qualities and professionalism.
5. Collaborate effectively with the interdisciplinary team to promote optimal health.
6. Demonstrate a caring presence to effectively relate and advocate for diverse populations.
7. Utilize professional communication.

To maintain John A. Logan College's adherence to academic excellence, JALC nursing continues to review the following metrics.

End of Program Outcomes are:

1. Licensure exam – National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) pass rates
2. Program completion rates
3. Job placement rates