

John A. Logan College Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month

2023 theme:

"Todos Somos, Somos Uno: We Are All, We Are One."

Keynote Speaker Presentation:

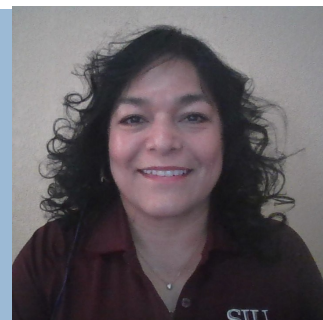

"Hispanic Culture, Contributions, and Advocacy: We Are Not Invisible."

By Ms. Cristina Castillo, Program Coordinator, Center for Rural Health and Social Service Development,
Southern Illinois University School of Medicine

When: Wednesday, October 11,
2023 from 11:00 to 12:00 noon

Where: John A. Logan College,
Conference Center, Batteau & Ivey

Castillo holds a master's of science in Educational Psychology with a Concentration in School Counseling from SIU Carbondale, and a bachelor's in psychology and minor in Sociology from Southern New Hampshire University. She attended John A. Logan College on and off as a non-traditional student while raising a family and graduated in 1999 with three associate degrees, Liberal Arts, Science, and Secondary Education.

For more information, contact Diversity & Inclusion Office, Room C214, 618-985-2828. Ext. 8586

Sponsored by the Diversity and Inclusion Committee and the Department of Communication, Humanities and Social Sciences, JALC

JALC
www.jalc.edu