

JALC

SOCIAL SCIENCE PRESENTATION

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

in SOUTHERN ILLINOIS

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7
11:00-12:00 JALC CRISP ROOM

PRESENTER: Shelly Taylor Page, Professor of Law and Director of Experiential Learning SIUC School of Law

- What is human trafficking?
- Where does it happen?
- Who are potential targets?
- How can you identify and prevent human trafficking?
- Does it happen in Southern Illinois?

These and other important factors concerning human trafficking will be discussed. Come, listen and learn and be prepared to engage in a topic that thrives in silence and ignorance. You will leave more knowledgeable and aware so that you can be an active participant in helping prevent human trafficking in Southern Illinois.

JOHN A. LOGAN COLLEGE

700 Logan College Drive • Carterville, IL 62918 • 618-985-2828 • jalc.edu

Sponsored by the Department of Communication, Humanities, and Social Sciences